

301 BC

CELTS

Asia Minor and parts of Macedonia fall to LYSIMACHUS; the rest of Macedonia to CASSANDER; Egypt stays with PTOLEMY; Persia and Syria with SELEUCUS.

301 BC

Zeno opens his school at the Stoa.

Seleucus I founds Antioch.

LYSIMACHUS defeats ANTIGONUS I
at IPSUS

~~Jan 1, -300 = Jan 1, 301<sup>BC</sup> Astronomer~~

$$(6664 - 2252)(365.25) = 1611483$$

301 BC

Jer / Jerk

Ptolemy I (King of Egypt)
conquered Egy Israel

301 BC

---

BATTLE OF IPSUS

Four other generals: Cassander, Lysimachus, Seleucus, Ptolemy I combined against Antigonus and at the Battle of Ipsus, defeated him.

The kingdom was divided among the four generals who now became kings. Later, hypermimetic was killed and his share given to the other three. Thus:

(a) SELF-00C10AF: extended from Phrygia

to India, including Babylon and Syria.

Artwork was copied. Sella compared

This Kingdom in 64BC

(b) Phoenicia: centers of Egypt & Palestine

Attending was capital: leading center of culture & education. Taken by Rome

under Octavian 30 BC. Since Jerusalem

(c) Macedonia: 100 BC. Since Rome independent till conquered by Rome.

301 BC

---

Battle of IPSUS.

Alexander's empire was divided among his 4 parts: SYRIA, MACEDON, GREECE, EGYPT.

301 BC

Antigonus killed at Battle of Ipsus.

30/BC

Battle of Ipsus

Generals of Alexander fought. Three main power blocks emerged. One was in Macedon & Greece. 2nd was in Syria and Mesopotamia where Seleucus gained control and founded his capital at Antioch in Syria on the River Orontes. 3rd was in Egypt where PTOLEMY was firmly on the throne.

He was great partner in the Helonite and in buying Alexander's body and turning it to Egypt to be buried in state in his capital Alexandria

301 BC

Battle of Ipsus. Macedonians under Antigonus (381? - 301 BC) defeated and killed by other DIADOCHI at village of IPSIUS in Asia Minor resulting in dissolution of Alexander the Great's old empire beyond recovery.

30/BC

1912 Dates J-BK

The Island of RHODES became an independent state after the battle of IPSUS.

301 BC

1912 Dates: J-BK

PONTUS was recognized as an independent state by the victorious IPSUS.